"Did Supt, Byrnes ever make any re port to you about it?"

"Oh, about the time our friend Dr. Parkhurst began his crusade," replied the Commissioner airily.
"Was there not some change in the running of these policy shops and pool-rooms after the last election."
"Not that I know. I heard that some of them were open again and running in a way."

"What do you mean by 'in a way?" "

Knew of No Policy Shops.

Attention was called by Mr. Suther-land to an attele in "The World" of Dec. 18, describing the violation of the Dec. 18, describing the violation of the law by the policy shops, and containing a protest from the Paulist Fathers, warning young men against those places. Mr. Martin said he had never seen the article and had never heard about the Paulist Fathers' protest.

"We have been waiting for evidence to be brought to us of these facts ever since has Fall. Sone has ever been furnished," said he.

"It's a case of masterly inactivity, then?"

then?"
"Not exactly. We invited the public generally to give as any proof they had of violation of the law. We regarded this as sufficient." "How was that invitation made?" "By a resolution of the Foard." "When?"

"When?"
"In the Fall of 1891."
"But we are talking of 1893."
"Well, that resolution was good for all time. The invitation was tacked on to the tall end of it."
Commissioner Martin sold he would have a copy of the resolution sent to the Committee.
